

Living by the Seaside

Key vocabulary

Coast

The area where the sea meets the land

Downs

The hills North of Brighton and Hove

City

A built up area with lots of people living there

Local Area

The area around where we live

Aerial view

What you can see when looking down from above

Map

A picture showing where things are

Compass

An item used to show where North, South, East and West are

Key

A code that tells us what different pictures on the map mean

Interesting places in our local area

Devils Dyke

The seafront

Hove lagoon

Jack and Jill Windmills

Did you know?

- ◆ Ditchling Beacon is the highest point in East Sussex, and is 248 metres tall.
- ◆ The South Downs are hills made from chalk, and they stretch for about 100 miles!

Key question:

What can maps tell us about our local area?

