

Science Topic:

My Wonderful World

Vocabulary

Growth	The process of something becoming bigger .
Organism	An organism is a living thing that can function on its own.
Movement	The noun movement means a change of position or location.
Nutrition	the process of providing or obtaining the food necessary for health and growth.
Respiration	Respiration is the act of breathing .
Reproduction	The act of reproduction involves making copies or having babies.
Excretion	Excretion is the physical process of eliminating waste, especially in a living organism.
Sensitivity	Sensitivity is a response to the environment.
Habitat	The type of environment in which an organism normally lives .
Skeleton	A skeleton is a framework of bones that supports the body.
Muscles	Muscles control the movement of bones in a
Vertebrate	A vertebrate is an animal that has a backbone and a skeleton.
Invertebrate	An animal that does not have a backbone.

Things of interest

All living things have these characteristics.

There are 206 bones in a human skeleton and over 600 muscles!

Overarching Question-

What makes our world wonderful?

Did you know?

One of the world's largest living organisms is a type of mushroom!

Key Questions:

What makes something a living thing?
Are all living things the same?
Do all animals have skeletons and muscles?
Would all animals like to live in the same place?
What makes a healthy diet?